Written by Len Thomson
Tuesday, 23 June 2009 06:56 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 August 2010 08:45

Hidden Jem, the home of beautiful gifts and interiors, hopes to open its doors on Saturday 27th June , in Knutsford's King Street. Owner, Julie Moores, currently has shops in Lytham and Ramsbottom and has chosen Knutsford to open her third shop.

Meller Braggins, the letting agents, let the premises almost immediately it became available, illustrating that there is demand for quality retail premises on King Street.

Hidden Jem joins a list of upmarket gift and interior retailers, including Summerhouse, Chalk, Christine Ireland Gallery, Interiors, House and the Cherry Tree Gallery in Knutsford.

Hidden Gem
107 King Street
Knutsford