Written by Len Thomson
Sunday, 01 November 2009 03:22 - Last Updated Tuesday, 03 November 2009 09:33

Spooky, creepy, fun and kid-friendly staff from Gascoigne Halman Knutsford, invited local children to enter their Pumpkin Carving Competition and were treated to a Spook-tacular Halloween Display of creative talent. An array of prizes were awarded to entrants for the most spooky, the best carving, outstandingly creative, with an additional category for the home grown pumpkin having to be created on the day.

While Gascoigne Halman's high profile competition clearly won the day other Knutsford businesses joined in the fun, including The Partners Hair & Beauty, Facets, Christine Ireland Gallery, Canvas Lounge, Mr Simms Olde Sweet Shoppe, Summerhouse and Nasty.

Written by Len Thomson
Sunday, 01 November 2009 03:22 - Last Updated Tuesday, 03 November 2009 09:33

